

Creative Force Press

Guiding Aspiring Authors to Release Their Dream

www.CreativeForcePress.com | Olympia, WA

Book Outline Template

Fill in the blanks, where applicable:

Notes: foreword, preface/prologue, introduction, conclusion/epilogue, references, and marketing pages are all optional. Depending on the type of book you're writing, the "Main Point" may actually be major life events, plot twists/flow (fiction), a problem you're identifying and its solution, categories, etc. This template is flexible, so structure it to meet your project's needs.

Foreword

Preface/Prologue

Introduction

(Note: you most likely will not need all of the introduction items below – pick and choose.)

Why I wrote this

Who I am

My experience with this topic

History

Details

Story

My vision

How to use this book

What I hope this book does for readers

Main Point/Major Life Event

Details to include about point

Opinions/advice/teaching points

Facts and research

Quotes and references

Experience/story (yours or someone else's) to support point

Main Point/Problem and Your Solution

Details to include about point

Opinions/advice/teaching points

Facts and research

Quotes and references

Experience/story to support point

Main Point/Plot Event

- Details to include about point
- Opinions
- Facts and research
- Quotes and references
- Experience/story to support point

Main Point

- Details to include about point
- Opinions/advice/teaching points
- Facts and research
- Quotes and references
- Story to support point

Main Point

- Details to include about point
- Opinions/advice/teaching points
- Facts and research
- Quotes and references
- Story to support point

Main Point

- Details to include about point
- Opinions/advice/teaching points
- Facts and research
- Quotes and references
- Story to support point

Main Point

- Details to include about point
- Opinions/advice/teaching points
- Facts and research
- Quotes and references
- Story to support point

Conclusion/Epilogue

References Section

About the Author

Other Marketing Pages