Writing Prompts

Feeling stuck? These interesting writing prompts can help!

Note: Set yourself up in a comfortable writing spot, preferably away from distraction. Choose one of these thoughts, and write continuously for at least 10 minutes.

If I could share with someone just ONE thing – one piece of wisdom or encouragement that would be most impactful for their future – what would I tell them?

“Most of the basic material a writer works with is acquired before the age of fifteen.”
- Willa Cather

What I want to be when I grow up...

If I could do anything I wanted, no matter how ridiculous, without anyone else’s opinion and without even judging myself, what is the first thing that comes to mind?

“We must be willing to let go of the life we have planned, so as to have the life that is waiting for us.” –Joseph Campbell

Create a list of 20 (or more) things you are grateful for today.

I’ve always wanted to invent a way to...

The worst day/moment of my life was _____, and what did I learn from it?

If I could give my younger self a couple pieces of advice, what would it be?

What are three injustices that I see in the world around me?
